ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

"TOURIST CAMP REGULATION ACT."

August 8th, 1945.

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Tourist Camp Regulation Act," being chapter 71 of the Statutes of 1945, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to make regulations as follows:—

REGULATIONS GOVERNING TOURIST CAMPS AND TRAILERS, MADE PURSUANT TO THE "TOURIST CAMP REGULATION ACT."

A. Interpretation.

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:—

"Cabin" includes house, cottage, kitchen, office, administration building, apartment, room, lodge, hut, tent, storehouse, shop, canteen, wash-house, bath-house, water-closet, privy, and other structure for the accommodation of the owner, operator, manager, or employees of a tourist camp, or of the public at a tourist camp:

"Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the British Columbia Government Travel Bureau:

"Existing camp" or "existing tourist camp" means a camp in operation at the time when these regulations come into force:

"Inspector" means an Inspector appointed pursuant to the provisions of the "Tourist Camp Regulation Act":

"New camp" or "new tourist camp" means a tourist camp established after the date when these regulations come into force:

"Tourist camp" or "camp" includes auto camp and any parcel of land or premises equipped with cabins used or maintained for the accommodation of the public, and any parcel of land or premises used or maintained as a camping or parking ground for the public, without regard to whether a fee or charge is paid or made for the rental or use of the same:

"Trailer" means any vehicle so constructed that it is suitable for being attached to a motor-vehicle for the purpose of being drawn or propelled by the motor-vehicle, and includes any such vehicle, notwithstanding that its running-gear is removed or that it is jacked up; but trailer does not include any vehicle unless it is used for the living, sleeping, or eating accommodation of persons therein.

B. Licensing and Registration.

2. The operator of every tourist camp situated in a municipality shall apply to the Licensing Authority for registration of the camp and shall pay to the Commissioner a registration fee of one dollar.

3. The operator of every tourist camp situated in unorganized territory shall apply to the Licensing Authority for a licence to operate the camp and shall pay to the Commissioner the licence fee prescribed by Regulation 6.

4. The times at which applications and payment of registration and licence fees are to be made, pursuant to Regulations 2 and 3, are as follows:—

(a.) In the case of an existing camp within thirty days after the coming into force of these regulations, and thereafter annually before the thirty-first day of May in each year for the year commencing on the first day of June:

(b.) In the case of a new camp within thirty days after the commencement of the operation of the camp and thereafter annually before the thirty-first day of May in each year for the year commencing on the first day of June.

5. Every application made pursuant to Regulation 2 or Regulation 3 shall be on a form to be supplied by the Licensing Authority and the applicant shall furnish all information required by that authority.

6. The fees to be paid for a licence pursuant to Regulation 3 shall be determined as follows:—

(a.) For every tourist camp equipped with sleeping accommodation for ten persons three dollars:

(b.) For every tourist camp equipped with sleeping accommodation for more than ten persons three dollars plus twenty-five cents in respect of every two persons in excess of ten for whom sleeping accommodation is provided.

7. The Licensing Authority shall consist of the following persons, namely:—

Commissioner, British Columbia Government Travel Bureau:

Assistant Commissioner, British Columbia Government Travel Bureau:

Commissioner, British Columbia Game Commission:

Assistant Deputy Minister of Lands:

Public Health Engineer, Provincial Board of Health.

7A. The Licensing Authority may refuse to grant a licence in any area where it is of the opinion that the conservation of the natural resources of the Province would be endangered by the operation of the camp, in respect of which an application is made; and where an application is refused the camp shall not be operated.

C. Supervision.

8. The operator of every tourist camp shall:—

(a.) Maintain in good repair and appearance all sanitary facilities and appliances in the camp:

(b.) Maintain every camp and its equipment in a clean and sanitary condition:

(c.) Provide and maintain at the camp equipment suitable and adequate for the deposit therein of rubbish, garbage, refuse, and waste:

(d.) Prevent the camp being littered with rubbish, garbage, refuse, or waste.

D. Fires.

9. The operator of every tourist camp shall:—
- (a.) Provide suitable stoves and other equipment for fires:
 - (b.) Prevent fires being lit at the camp otherwise than in the stoves or other equipment provided therefor:
 - (c.) Comply with all regulations made pursuant to the "Fire Marshal Act" relating to fireplaces, smoke-pipes, furnace chambers, and other matters:
 - (d.) Comply with all regulations made pursuant to the "Forest Act" relating to fires, fire-protection, and other matters.
10. No person shall light a fire at a camp except in a stove or other equipment provided for that purpose.

E. Water-supply.

11. Every operator of a camp shall furnish at the camp for drinking and domestic purposes an adequate supply of pure water easily obtainable from its source.

12. Where there is a pipe distribution system at a tourist camp the operator shall install faucets within one hundred feet from each cabin.

13. The operator of every camp shall prevent persons from dipping water from an open spring or well at the camp, and shall not provide, or permit the use of, common drinking-cups or containers.

14. Where a water-main of a public water system extends to within two hundred feet of a camp the operator shall obtain all water used for drinking or domestic purposes from that system and not from any other source.

15. No operator of a camp shall use a well as a source of water-supply for the camp unless the well is so constructed and located that the water obtained therefrom is free from contamination.

16. If the water available for use at a tourist camp is subject to contamination, the operator shall not use such water until it has been adequately treated.

F. Sewage-disposal.

17. The operator of every camp shall dispose of the sewage therefrom in such manner that it will not create a nuisance or pollute any stream, lake, or other body of water, or contaminate a water-supply, bathing-place, or shell-fish growing area.

G. Toilets.

18. The operator of every tourist camp shall provide toilets in compliance with the following conditions:—

- (a.) The toilets shall be at a distance of not more than two hundred feet from any cabin in the camp:
- (b.) The floors of the toilets shall be of concrete or of other equally impervious material:
- (c.) The toilets shall be well ventilated to the outside air and shall be provided with lighting facilities:
- (d.) The toilets shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition:
- (e.) Toilets shall be water-flushed in every case where the installation of water-flushing is practicable at reasonable cost, but water-flushed toilets shall not be installed unless they are connected to a public sewer system or to a properly designed and constructed septic tank and absorption system:
- (f.) Where water-flushed toilets are not used the toilets shall be so constructed and maintained:—

(i.) That flies, insects, rats, or small domestic animals cannot gain access to the waste materials;

(ii.) That the surface or ground water cannot enter the pit or vault; and

(iii.) That waste material in the privy cannot contaminate a water-supply:

- (g.) The number of toilets required shall be based upon the following table:—

Number of Persons for whom Accommodation is Available at Camp.	Minimum Number of Water-closets or Privy-seats.	Minimum Number of Lavatories or Wash-basins.
Over 100	One water-closet and one lavatory or wash-basin for each additional 30 persons.

H. Garbage-disposal.

19. Every operator of a tourist camp shall:—

- (a.) Provide at the camp fly-tight metal garbage containers in convenient locations and in ample number:
- (b.) Maintain the garbage containers so that they shall not become foul smelling, unsightly, or breeding-places for flies:
- (c.) Dispose of all garbage and refuse by burial, incineration, or other manner approved by the Licensing Authority.

20. No person at a tourist camp shall dispose of garbage, waste, or refuse except in accordance with the arrangements made by the operator of the camp.

I. Construction of Buildings.

21. No person shall after the date when these regulations come into force construct any building or cabin in a tourist camp unless he complies with the following conditions:—

- (a.) All floors not built on solid concrete or rat-proof foundation shall be built at least twelve inches above the ground:
- (b.) All floors shall be constructed of tongue and grooved material, or other type of flooring that has been approved by the Licensing Authority:
- (c.) Interior walls shall be of smooth surface lumber or of other material approved by the Licensing Authority:
- (d.) Interior walls shall be so constructed that they may always be kept in a thoroughly clean condition:
- (e.) Every living-room, sleeping-room, and kitchen shall have one or more windows having an aggregate area of not less than one-tenth of the floor area:
- (f.) Every bath-room and toilet-room shall have one or more windows having an aggregate area of not less than three square feet:
- (g.) Every window shall be so arranged that at least half of its aggregate area may be opened without obstruction:
- (h.) There shall be no toilet in a building containing sleeping, eating, or other living accommodation unless the toilet is water-flushed:
- (i.) Every room containing a toilet shall have a window to the outside air, and the floor shall be constructed of or finished with impervious material:
- (j.) Plans and specifications of the sewerage system and sewage treatment facilities shall be submitted to the Provincial Board of Health and the installation shall not be proceeded with until the plans and specifications have been approved by the Board:
- (k.) Every bath-room shall have a floor of or finished with impervious material and shall have a window opening to the outside air.

22. If in any building constructed after the coming into force of these regulations there is a failure to comply with any of the conditions specified in Regulation 21 the Licensing

Authority may refuse to register the camp if it is in a municipality and may refuse to issue a licence under these regulations if the camp is in unorganized territory; and in case of such refusal the owner shall not, nor shall any other person, after notification of the refusal, operate the camp as a tourist camp.

J. Maintenance of Camps.

23. The operator of every tourist camp shall assign a distinguishing number or name to every rental unit in the tourist camp operated by him.

24. The operator of every tourist camp shall cause every ventilating opening in every building in the camp to be screened.

25. The operator of every tourist camp shall:—

- (a.) Cause each room and each cabin to be thoroughly cleaned after every occupancy;
- (b.) Where bedding is provided, keep the bedding in a clean and sanitary condition, and provide freshly laundered sheets and pillow-cases for each new occupant;
- (c.) Keep the furniture in a clean and sanitary condition.

26. The operator of a tourist camp shall not represent a room as suitable for sleeping accommodation unless it complies with the following conditions as to dimensions:—

- (a.) Where it is represented as suitable for sleeping accommodation for two persons it shall have a cubic space of not less than seven hundred and twenty cubic feet;
- (b.) Where it is represented as suitable for sleeping accommodation for more than two persons it shall have additional cubic space of five hundred cubic feet for each person more than two.

K. Registration.

27. Every operator of a camp shall provide and keep thereat a suitable guest-register for the registration of all persons provided with sleeping, housekeeping, camping, or other accommodation at the tourist camp. Upon the arrival of every such person at the camp the operator shall require that person to enter in the register, or enter for him therein, the name and home address of the person and of each other person with him as a member of his party, together with the date of arrival, and if the person is travelling by motor-vehicle, the trade-name of the motor-vehicle, the registration number thereof and other identifying letters or characters appearing on the official number-plate carried thereon, including the name of the Province, State, or country in which the number plate was issued, and the operator shall also enter in the register the number or name of the rental unit occupied by the guest, and if there is a trailer the operator shall also record that fact in the register. Upon the departure of the guest the operator shall enter the date of departure in the register.

28. Every person when arriving at a tourist camp and applying for accommodation therein shall furnish to the operator of the camp the registration information necessary to complete his registration in accordance with Regulation 27 and shall not be provided with accommodation until such information has been furnished.

29. The operator of every tourist camp shall make his registration records available for inspection by any constable or Inspector.

L. Boats for Hire.

30. Where boats are operated for hire in a tourist camp, the operator of the tourist camp shall keep the boats in a clean, safe, and seaworthy condition, and shall mark and keep marked on each boat in a conspicuous place the safe carrying capacity of the boat.

M. Communicable Diseases.

31. The operator of every camp who knows or suspects the presence of a person in the camp having an infectious or communicable disease shall report the facts to the local health officer.

32. Where any room or cabin has been occupied by a person having an infectious or communicable disease the operator shall treat the room or cabin and the furnishings thereof in accordance with the requirements prescribed by the Provincial Board of Health Regulations in respect of the disease in question.

N. Camping Space.

33. Where there is in a tourist camp space intended to be used or used for the erection of tents or other temporary sleeping accommodation or for the accommodation of trailers, the operator of the camp shall comply with the following provisions:—

- (a.) Not less than six hundred square feet of space (the area measuring not less than twenty feet by thirty feet) shall be provided for each trailer or camping party;
- (b.) There shall be a driveway not less than twenty feet wide between rows of trailer camping space;
- (c.) Every driveway and trailer camping space shall be well marked in daytime and well lighted at night;
- (d.) Every camping area shall be well drained and free from insect breeding-places.

O. Trailers.

34. Every person who operates a trailer shall comply with the following provisions:—

- (a.) He shall not camp or park it overnight within twenty feet of the travelled portion of a public highway;
- (b.) He shall not permit any waste water from the trailer or the contents of a toilet in the trailer to be deposited on the surface of the ground or on a highway or disposed of in such a manner as to contaminate any source of water-supply;
- (c.) He shall not use or permit to be used any toilet installed in a trailer while the trailer is parked in a camp unless the trailer is provided with a fly- and water-tight metal receptacle for the reception of human excreta or unless the toilet is connected to a sanitary sewer;
- (d.) He shall not use or operate a trailer unless it is equipped with a sanitary fly-tight depository for the disposal of the contents of trailer toilets and with clean and adequate washing facilities for the proper cleaning of the toilet;
- (e.) He shall not deposit or dispose of or permit to be deposited or disposed of any garbage, rubbish, or refuse from the trailer otherwise than by burning or by burying it at a distance of more than fifty feet from any public highway or road and more than two hundred feet from any spring, well, stream, lake, reservoir, or other source of water-supply;
- (f.) He shall provide a bucket or other suitable receptacle placed in such a manner as to receive all water or waste that may be deposited from any refrigerator, drain, sink, or waste-pipe on the trailer.

P. Enforcement.

35. Any Inspector shall have power to enter any tourist camp and any cabin or other building therein for the purpose of inspecting the same, but an Inspector shall not enter a cabin when it is occupied by a guest without the consent of the guest.

36. Where an Inspector finds that the operator of any tourist camp is not complying with any of the provisions of these regulations he may report the circumstances to the Licensing Authority and the Licensing Authority may thereupon serve notice on the operator requiring him to comply with these regulations, specifying the matter in respect of which he is required to comply and notifying him that if he fails to comply within the time limited in the notice his licence or registration may be cancelled; and if the operator fails to comply within the time limited the Licensing Authority may cancel his licence or registration and the operator shall not after such cancellation operate the camp as a tourist camp.

37. Every person who fails to observe any of these regulations shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Q. Exemption.

38. These regulations shall apply within the Province but shall not apply to any camp operated by a welfare or charitable institution.

R. Commencement.

39. These regulations shall come into operation on the fifteenth day of August, 1945.

" COMPANIES ACT."

No. 19543.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Demerara Goldfields, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 7th day of August, 1945.

The Company is authorized to issue three million shares without nominal or par value.

The address of its registered office is Room 814, 850 Hastings Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire, and hold, buy, sell, and deal in, either as principals or agents, shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations, and securities of any company, duly constituted or carrying on business within the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere, and debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any Government, sovereign ruler, commissioner, public body or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), whether in Canada or elsewhere:

(b.) To acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, or securities by original subscription, tender, purchase, exchange, or otherwise, and to subscribe for the same, either conditionally or otherwise, and, subject to the "Insurance Act," to guarantee the subscription thereof, and to enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incident to the ownership thereof:

(c.) To acquire, buy, sell, mortgage, lease, and deal in, either as principals or agents, real estate and other property in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(d.) To transact and carry on all kinds of agency business, and in particular in relation to the investment of money, the sale of property, and the collection and receipt of money; to carry on the business of builders, contractors, merchants, real-estate agents, general financial and investment agents, or any other business which may seem to the Company, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of these objects, and calculated to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(e.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, or otherwise to acquire any real and personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business; and in particular any lands, buildings, easements, machinery, mines, and stock-in-trade:

(f.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company's business:

(g.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(h.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or authorized or intended to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire, and to hold and deal with the shares, stocks, or securities of such company:

(j.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(k.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To guarantee the payment of money or the carrying-out of any contract or obligation; but nothing herein shall entitle the Company to carry on the business of guarantee insurance:

(m.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company; and to enter into contracts or arrangements of all kinds with owners, builders, contractors, tenants, purchasers, and others:

(n.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(o.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from such Government or authority any rights, privileges, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(p.) To pay the expense of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any promoter or director or any other person, firm, or corporation for services rendered in or about the foundation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business, or the placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company:

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(r.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration as from time to time may be determined:

(s.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(t.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person, firm, or company as agent for the Company:

(u.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(v.) It is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause, except where used in reference to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and wherever domiciled, and also that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall be deemed independent objects of this Company, and, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph that the Company may exercise all or any of the powers herein contained; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize or empower the Company to transact any business or do anything whereby it may be brought within the scope of the "Trust Companies Act."

To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch and employ expeditions, commissioners, experts, and other agents, and to report on all classes of property and enterprises for local or foreign corporations or private persons or firms:

(g.) To carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by financiers, promoters of companies, underwriters, merchants, capitalists, financial and general agents, and brokers and contractors in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere:

(h.) To act as financial and business advisers and consultants:

(i.) To act as the registered office or place of business of and to manage and act as book-keepers of any person, firm, syndicate, or corporation:

(j.) To acquire an option or options for the purchase of real property and any interest therein, and personal property of every kind and description and any interest therein:

(k.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, or association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(l.) To issue paid-up shares, bonds, debenture stock, and (or) other securities for the payment, either in whole or in part, of any property, real or personal, business, claims, privileges, licences, concessions, franchises, or other advantages which the Company may lawfully acquire, and, with the approval of the shareholders, for services rendered to or work performed for it, and also to issue such fully paid-up shares, bonds, debenture stock, and (or) other securities in payment or part payment or exchange for the shares, bonds, or debenture stock, and (or) securities of any other Company:

(m.) To do all such things and to carry on such business as the Company may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(n.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(o.) And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof shall be interpreted as a separate power and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph.

LAW SOCIETY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

NOTICE is hereby given that at a meeting of the Benchers of the Law Society of British Columbia, held in the Chamber Room at the Law Courts, Vancouver, B.C., on the 7th day of April, 1945, the following resolution was passed, in accordance with section 45, subsection (1), of the "Legal Professions Act":—

"That upon reading the complaint made by Mrs. Alice Sandberg in the form of a statutory declaration, dated the 14th day of November, 1944, against Mr. Denis Murphy, Jr., a barrister and solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, and upon hearing the evidence of the said Alice Sandberg, in support of the complaint, and upon hearing the evidence of Mr. Denis Murphy, Jr., sworn herein and after the said witnesses were examined:

"Resolved, That after careful consideration of the said complaint, the Benchers are of opinion that the said Denis Murphy, Jr., has been guilty of professional misconduct in the premises and that he be suspended from practice as a barrister and solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia for six months from the 7th day of April, A.D. 1945."

Secretary, L.S.B.C.

NOTE.—Whereas the said Denis Murphy, Jr., appealed from the above resolution of the Benchers, and a stay of judgment was ordered by the Benchers from the 24th day of April, 1945, until the date of the judgment, viz., July 25th, 1945; therefore in computing the said period of six months' suspension from practice there shall be excluded the period between April 24th, 1945, and July 25th, 1945, during which period there was a stay of judgment and therefore the said term of suspension from practice shall end on the 7th day of January, 1946.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.
